

It was an era of Knights on horses, Princesses in pointy hats and fire-breathing beasts.

WHERE DOES A DANGEROLOGIST EVEN START?

1. CASTLES were much too big and cold, and had too many corners you could bang your knee on. I would have made them much smaller and more cushiony. CORRECT. I'd have replaced all castles with BOUNCY CASTLES. This would have made battles LESS DANGEROUS and MORE FUN.

2. To avoid bursting your castle, all pointy things would have been banned.

The only armour allowed would be KNITTED ARMOUR and all weapons would be replaced with VEGETABLES.

Sword fighting would be with CUCUMBERS.
